1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Bruhl. Bruhl discloses a shade comprising a material portion 6, compressible members 8,9 extending beyond the perimeter boundary of the material portion. Bruhl further discloses that the shade is adapted to be folded into a relatively small package for storage in the glove compartment which is seen as encompassing a reversibly twisted configuration or in the alternative thereof the full and obvious equivalent state.

The applicant argues that Bruhl does not show a compressible member made of a spring-like thin metal or plastic band and which fits within a material portion extending beyond the material portion along an arc. However, this argument is more specific than the claims and thus is not directed thereto for the claims do not recite the compressible member as being made of a spring-like thin metal or plastic band and which fits within a material portion extending beyond the material portion along an arc.

2. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Any inquiry concerning this communication should be directed to David M. Purol at telephone number (571) 272-6833.
